JÜDISCHES MUSEUM MÜNCHEN

PRESSEINFORMATION
PRESS RELEASE

109 Synagogue Fragments

| | |
|---|---|
| Find dates: | June 2023 / January 2025 |
| Find location: | Isarwehr Großhesselohe in Pullach (SWM) |
| Archaeological material: | 756 fragments alltogether:405 architectural elements,including 109 synagogue fragments351 plain cut stones without special characteristics,unidentifyable splinters, stones and clumps of mortar |
| Total weight: | more than 600 t |
| Weight of synagogue fragments: | ca. 112 t |
| Lightest fragment: | ca. 100 kg |
| Heaviest fragment: | ca. 4,6 t |
| Project partners: | Jewish Museum MunichIsraelitische Kultusgemeinde München und OberbayernLiberale jüdische Gemeinde München Beth Shalom e.V.Bavarian State Ministry of Science and the ArtsBavarian State Office for Monument ProtectionStadtwerke München GmbH (Munich City Utilities) |
| Historic building research: | Kayser+Böttges. Ingenieure und Architekten GmbH, München |
| Provenance research: | Kanzlei von Trott zu Solz Lammek, Berlin |
| Preservation and conservation | Stadtwerke München GmbH (Munich City Utilities)Bavarian State Office for Monument Protection |
| Exhibition | resurfaced.An exhibition of the Jewish Museum MunichCurators: Jutta Fleckentein, Dr. Eva TyrellExhibition Design: chezweitz, BerlinFrom April 13, 2027 |